

CS Ed in NYC

Mike Zamansky*

Hi

- NYC Public School Product K-12
- Goldman Sachs
- Seward Park / Stuyvesant
- Hunter
- not a software engineer
- big public school guy
- talk about K12 CS in NYC

The Stone Age - 80s

- talk about punch cards and jcl
- students had to opt in and also knew more
- closed club

The Bronze Age

- CS as remedial math
- Some CS by hobbyists
- APCS split into A and AB

*Email: zamansky@gmail.com
Twitter: @zamansky

- Early 90s
- computer labs more prevalent in schools
- end of APCS-AB (low APCS scores overall)
- DOE not interested